

LONDON PLACE GROUP ACQUIRES NEW COMMERCIAL SCHEME IN TWICKENHAM FROM CREST NICHOLSON.

LONDON PLACE TWICKENHAM

London Place has bought three high specification commercial suites on the ground floor of Beaumont House in central Twickenham, a prestigious residential development recently completed by leading housebuilder, Crest Nicholson.

The units are located in a highly visible position on Heath Road at the junction with Saville Road and benefit from floor to ceiling glazing, raised floors and air conditioning. Future tenants will have access to the communal gardens, as well as parking. The suites range in size from 131.47 sqm to 171.10 sqm.

Twickenham is an affluent South West London suburb close to the River Thames. Heath Road is the main route in and out of Twickenham leading to the A316 and M3 motorway approximately five miles away. Twickenham Station has direct trains to London Waterloo with a journey time of approximately 30 minutes. The town centre is within easy reach providing local a range of amenities including cafés, restaurants, banks and shops.

London Place is a leading owner and manager of quality commercial space that offers businesses a professional and well-designed work environment within excellent buildings in good business locations.
